- 25X1 1. The cadre section of the SED Kreisleitung in Prenzlau issued a directive to all enterprises that former air force personnel up to 45 years of age and all men between 13 and 45 years of age fit for police service except trained Volkspolizei personnel be reported to the SED Kreisleitung.
2. A registration of labor including independent merchants, single person enterprises, and employees was made on the basis of the previous administrative organization on 20 July 1952. The action was part of a registration of the entire manpower potential available for labor in Eastern Germany.
3. The Prenzlau labor office received a telephone order from Potsdam that preparations be made to send laborers for construction projects to Hungary and that the addresses of all laborers who returned from the U.S.S.R. be reported to Potsdam.
4. All available data on section chiefs and officials qualified to fill the position of section chief must be submitted to the SED Kreisleitung in Prenzlau after the change of the Kreis. A commission will examine these data and determine whether the section chiefs may be appointed to similar or higher positions in the Kreis which will be established in Western Germany. *
